1. INTRODUCTION

This document serves as a comprehensive guide to the leave policy of Mallow Technologies Private Ltd. This policy is designed to provide a consistent and transparent framework for managing various types of leaves.

All employees are expected to familiarise themselves with this leave policy and adhere to its guidelines. Any exceptions or deviations from the policy require prior approval from the relevant authority. The practical implementation of this policy relies on the cooperation and understanding of both employees and the company.

2. POLICY APPLICATION AND PERIOD

2.1 Applicability:

This leave policy applies to all employees within the company, promoting uniformity and consistency in leave management procedures.

2.2 Leave Period:

The leave policy extends from January 1st to December 31st each calendar year, establishing a transparent timeframe for both leave entitlements and utilisation.

2.3 Pro-Rata Entitlement for New Appointments:

Employees hired throughout the year will receive leave entitlements on a pro-rata basis. This practice ensures fairness by aligning leave allocations with the duration of their service within the calendar year.

2.4 Approval Process:

Prior approval from the relevant authority is mandatory for leave requests. Employees are encouraged to submit their leave requests well in advance to support efficient workforce planning.

2.5 Notification of Unplanned Leave:

If unforeseen circumstances necessitate leave, employees must inform their reporting person or mentor via phone before office hours. This proactive communication enables effective leave planning and minimises disruptions to work.

2.6 Same-Day System Update:

It's the responsibility of reporting persons or mentors to promptly update the system on the same day upon receiving notifications of unplanned leave from employees. This real-time data entry is crucial to maintain accurate and up-to-date records.

2.7 Leave Request Actions Based on Project Situation:

Leave requests will be processed according to the specific project situation and employee availability. This ensures that approvals or rejections align with project requirements, thereby maintaining operational continuity.

3. LEAVE CATEGORIES

3.1 EARNED LEAVE (EL):

Earned Leave is designed to promote work-life balance by allowing employees to plan for vacations, attend to personal reasons, or address other purposes.

Eligibility and Entitlement

- Employees become eligible for EL after completing 240 days of service in the company.
- Employees are allocated 12 days of EL based on 240 actual working days, explicitly considering individual working days. The calculation of 240 days excludes week-offs, employee leaves, and company holidays.
- Days served during probation are considered when determining eligibility for EL.
- Unused EL as of December 31st will be carried forward to the following calendar year.
- EL can be accumulated for a maximum of 45 days.

3.2 SICK LEAVE (SL):

Sick Leave is a benefit intended to assist employees in recovering from epidemic illnesses or injuries.

Eligibility and Entitlement

- This leave applies to all employees in the company, including probationers.
- SL credits are allocated to employees each calendar year on the 1st of January.
- Employees are entitled to 12 days of SL per calendar year.
- To request SL, employees must provide proof of inpatient hospitalization (minimum 24 hours), which includes a discharge summary, prescriptions, and bills.
- All submitted documents will be verified against the original records.
- Unused SL will lapse on 31st December of each calendar year.

3.3 CASUAL LEAVE (CL):

Casual Leave is a type of leave granted to employees for short-term absences, facilitating flexibility for unexpected appointments or minor illnesses.

Eligibility and Entitlement :

- This leave applies to all employees in the company, including probationers.
- Employees are granted 1 CL per month, totalling 12 days per calendar year.
- Taking CL is limited to three consecutive days.
- CL extending beyond three consecutive days will be considered as EL.
- CL cannot be combined with any other types of leaves, week-offs and/or holidays.
- Unused CL will lapse on the 31st of December each calendar year.

4. ABSENCE FROM DUTY

- When employees takes a day off from duty without prior approval/intimation, those days will be considered as absence from duty.
- The days of absence will be treated as a Loss of Pay and also deducted from EL.
- Employees are required to provide valid reasons for absence before resuming work, and if the reason is deemed invalid, disciplinary action will be taken.

5. LEAVE DURING NOTICE PERIOD

- During their notice period, employees are not eligible for any type of leave privilege.
- If employees take any leave during their notice period, those days will be considered as Loss of Pay and added to extend their notice period accordingly.

6. EXCEPTION

This policy is subject to modification, amendments, or alterations by the company at any time in response to business or statutory requirements.

7. CONCLUSION

In conclusion, this leave policy aims to create a supportive and structured environment for employees to manage their work and personal commitments effectively. Adherence to this policy ensures fairness, consistency, and the smooth functioning of Mallow Technologies Private Ltd. All employees are encouraged to familiarise themselves with the contents of this document and seek clarification from the HR team if needed.
