

Guidelines for Meeting Room and TV Utilisation

Objective:

To ensure the efficient use of our meeting rooms and resources, we would like to provide some guidelines for their utilisation.

Availability:

- 4 Meeting Rooms without TV(Located on the 1st floor of the Karur office):
 - Each room can accommodate up to 4 people
- 2 Meeting Rooms with TV(Located on the 2nd floor of the Karur office):
 - Small Meeting Room:
 - Accommodates up to 6 people.
 - Large Meeting Room:
 - Accommodates up to 20 people.

Guidelines for Using Meeting Rooms:

1. Priority Use - Client Meetings:

Please priorities using meeting rooms for client calls or discussions involving sensitive information. This applies to both solo and group meetings. Ensuring a professional and private environment for these interactions is our top priority.

2. Priority Use - Sensitive Team Discussions:

Use meeting rooms for internal meetings that involve discussing sensitive content. Maintaining privacy and focusing on these discussions is the second priority.

3. TV Utilisation:

- For meetings with less than 6 people that require a TV, please use the small meeting room.
- For meetings with more than 6 people that require a TV, please use the large meeting room.

4. Avoid Unnecessary Occupation:

Please refrain from occupying meeting rooms for non-essential activities or solo work. This ensures that the rooms are available for those who need them for scheduled meetings and important discussions.

Please prepare to attend general meetings from your seat and make yourself comfortable for this.

Conclusion:

By following these guidelines, we can ensure that our meeting rooms are used effectively and are available to everyone when needed. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated and will help maintain a productive and respectful working environment for all.
