

Office Etiquette Policy

1. Introduction:

The office etiquette policy outlines the expected standards of behaviour and conduct within our workplace environment. This policy promotes professionalism, respect, and collaboration among all employees. By adhering to these guidelines, we aim to create a positive and productive work atmosphere conducive to achieving our company goals.

2. Dress code and appearance:

Our appearance serves as a direct representation of our company's values and culture. Therefore, on regular working days, we encourage a business casual dress code, which includes:

Men: Formal attire or business casual, consisting of a shirt, collared T-shirts, formal trousers, jeans, dhoti, kurta and shoes or strap sandals.

Women: Formal dress which includes long skirts, long gowns, salwar suits, sarees, formal pants, jeans, and shoes or strap sandals.

A neat and well-groomed hairstyle is imperative in maintaining our professional appearance within the office.

Note: Please refrain from wearing slippers/flip-flops or footwear of similar models.

3. Professional etiquette:

3.1. Greetings: Greet colleagues with a warm smile and a friendly "Hi" when you encounter them in the workplace.

3.2. Expressing Gratitude: Demonstrate appreciation by saying "Thank you" in various situations, such as when someone accommodates you or extends a kindness.

3.3. Punctuality: Ensure punctuality by arriving on time for office hours and meetings. Being punctual demonstrates respect for colleagues' time and contributes to smooth operations.

3.4. Politeness in Conversations: Maintain politeness and courtesy during conversations with colleagues and clients.

3.5. Active Listening: Practice active listening during meetings. Take notes of any questions or concerns and raise them during appropriate pauses. If immediate attention is needed, politely interrupt with an apology.

3.6. Leaving Meetings: When leaving a meeting, take an appropriate break or pause and inform colleagues through chat if necessary. Offer a simple gesture of acknowledgement before leaving without drawing an unnecessary attention.

4. Conclusion:

Maintaining a professional and respectful workplace environment is essential for the success of our company. By adhering to the guidelines outlined in this office etiquette policy, we can create a positive and inclusive workplace culture where every individual can thrive and contribute to our collective goals.

Mallow Technologies Pvt Ltd