

Rules and Regulations

1. Employees are expected to maintain good conduct in & out of the office and maintain the dignity of the company, failing which may lead to disciplinary action.
2. Employees should not discuss or disclose company-related matters to outsiders. Employees should discuss matters related to the company only with the authorised person inside the company.
3. Pen drives, CDs, DVDs, iPods or any other electronic device should not be used in the company. If the need arises to use any of them for official purposes, get prior approval before using them.
4. Avoid personal chatting, social networking and other personal work during official hours.
5. Mobiles should not be connected to computers, servers or any other company device. Mobiles can be used only for personal use. Please put your mobile phones on silent mode and avoid taking calls inside the development area to avoid disturbance for others.
6. Avoid storing or copying songs, videos or any other personal data in the systems or server.
7. Maintain the official workplace clean.
8. You must hand over all official login credentials, including Skype, Slack and any other third-party account, to HR/Network Team on or before your relieving date.
9. Please feel free to contact the management or Executives for your suggestions to improve, correct or change practices of the company in order to make it a better company.